So What’s Been Happening at the Cedar Key Arts Center

Its’ safe to say a lot has happened in all of our lives since our last newsletter was published in January. Although the Arts Center was not able to host the Summer Children’s Art Program in July as usual, we were not idle and have a few highlights to share:

- March Exhibits, which were closed because of COVID, reopened in early May and ran through the month of June following CDC guidelines.
- While we were closed long overdue “spring cleaning” was accomplished and the lower level storeroom was reorganized to allow additional space for a ceramics “studio.”
- The Cedar Keyhole Artist Co-op sponsored a Y’Art Sale in August. This event, which ran through Labor Day, was very successful benefitting the Keyhole & it’s artists.
- The upstairs studios were available throughout the summer for small group use and “Open Studio” weekends.
- Finally, during the last two weeks of September, the walls & floors of the old upstairs section of the CKAC were repainted.

Planning for the 2020/2021 Season

The Cedar Key Arts Center Board has approved a step-wise plan for safely expanding Gallery Exhibits and Workshops.

In November, an Open Community Exhibit is planned. Although no Opening Reception is scheduled, entries for the Work and Works of Art Exhibit, will be judged and prizes will be awarded. In addition, visitors to the show which runs through January 3, will vote for a PEOPLES CHOICE AWARD. Several workshops are on the books and members will have easy access to studio space during OPEN STUDIO time scheduled twice a month (see Workshop Schedule on back).
